

ARG UK Herpetofauna Workers' Meeting 2008

---

Provisional Programme

Saturday 9 to Sunday 10 February 2008

Butts Park Arena, Butts Road,
Coventry CV1 3GE

NARRS Update.

The Essex seawalls: an important but threatened refuge for reptiles.

Crassula control.

Making the Adder Count – developing a local project in Derbyshire.

The consequences of being SAC'd – Conservation Action on SACs and delivering FCS.

Emergence of amphibian chytridiomycosis in the UK.

Monitoring and distribution surveys in the Netherlands.

Conservation of Jersey Herps.

Changes in European protected species legislation: implications for amphibian and reptile conservation

The Pond HAP.

Colonisation of newly created small ponds by great crested newts.

Do translocations work? A 10-year study of a translocated slow-worm population in Kent.

Social evening

Life in Cold Blood – a sneak preview.

Workshops

1. Reptile habitat suitability index.
2. Widespread species SAPs.
3. Amphibian chytridiomycosis: what you should know, and how you can help.
4. Habitat suitability index for great crested newts.
5. High quality ponds.
6. Key sites.

For a programme and registration form contact:

Angie Stribling, The Herpetological Conservation Trust, 01202 391319
angela.stribling@herpconstrust.org.uk

This conference has been generously sponsored by:

